

I urge you not to soften the stance on the "Do Not Call List". I joined that list for a very specific reason--I do not want telemarketers calling my home. I will not buy or donate to any unsolicited callers. I am a caregiver for an ill relative and other family members are in bed by 6 pm due to their work schedule. I do not appreciate unwanted phone calls disrupting our lives. No means No--I do not want this intrusion.